

Freeman - 23

£ 8,000

Description

The Freeman name is associated with quality and craftsmanship, having built river and estuary boats for over 50 years. The 23 superseded the 22 Mk1 and Mk2. Introduced in 1970, they were so popular that over 700 were built in the next 4 years. Powered with a shaft driven Ford WaterMota Cross flow petrol engine, offering economic, easy to steer river cruising with 4 berths. Main cabin accessed from cockpit via lockable double doors. 5'11" standing headroom in saloon and galley. A dinette area to port with table that lowers to form a double berth. Bulkhead mounted cupboard with bottle holders and storage for glasses. Compact galley on starboard side opposite dinette with sink and 2 burner hob with grill. Toilet compartment on starboard side with sea toilet. Opposite is a wardrobe with cleverly designed, hinged door that can be used to close off the forward cabin area. Large V-berth in the forward cabin area with opening deck hatch and 12V lighting. This is a lovely boat and well worth a viewing * BSS August 2026 * Fridge * Hot Water via Calorifier * Shore power * Battery Charger * Sea toilet * Bilge Fan * Davits * Winter Cover
