Description

The semi displacement hull together with long keel provides an easy handling river craft which is also able to be cruised off shore . The large cockpit together with 5 cabin berths make this a very spacious family boat. Although this boat was built in Circa 1970"s she is still a good looking boat with plenty of room in the cockpit for relaxing or fishing or simply enjoying the river life with family and friends. This boat has 5 berths inside the cabins and an additional 2 summer berths could be made up in the cockpit. This boat has twin Perkins 4108 diesel engines with Enfield outdrives, and hydraulic steering. Eberspacher diesel warm air heating and water heater sea toilet shore power battery charger
